

Jason is originally from Kangirsuk, Nunavik. Following his Master degree in education at Columbia University he worked in post-secondary education for eight years. The majority of that work experience was dedicated to serving Nunavik Inuit in a managerial role. In 2018 he completed a Master of business and administration degree from McGill and HEC Montreal and changed career paths by joining Makivvik in 2021. Jason currently serves as the Director of Business Development Department at Makivvik and is also president of Nunavik Investment Corporation.