

Patrick Twinn, MBA - Director, Indigenous Relations, ATB

Patrick is a proud member of the Sawridge First Nation in Treaty 8 Territory, Alberta. He began his career in hospitality and tourism with Indigenous-owned businesses like the Sawridge Group of Companies and the River Cree Resort & Casino. He then transitioned to consulting, helping Indigenous organizations and communities with economic development, strategic planning, and entrepreneurship. Before joining ATB, Patrick led Indigenous Relations at Civeo, supporting the natural resources sector.

Driven by a passion for Indigenous inclusion and reconciliation, Patrick now serves as ATB's Director of Indigenous Relations. He leads ATB's strategy to rebuild trust and equity with Indigenous Peoples through inclusive initiatives, fostering meaningful relationships that support Truth & Reconciliation and uplift Indigenous legacies and livelihoods.
