

Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business welcomes Bee-Clean Building Maintenance as Patron Member

Toronto, ON – September 23, 2013 -“The Canadian Council for Aboriginal Business (CCAB) is honoured to welcome Bee-Clean Building Maintenance to our distinguished group of Patron Members. When we see growing, successful companies with a national footprint such as Bee-Clean Building Maintenance continuing to support the work we do, I know that great things are happening,” stated Canadian Council of Aboriginal Business (CCAB) President and CEO JP Gladu.

With over 1000 buildings in their portfolio Bee-Clean is Canada’s largest janitorial service provider who for over 40 years have provided Canadians with quality cleaning, restoration, consulting and facilities services.

“We’re proud to become Patron Members, continuing our commitment to support CCAB in delivering the wonderful services that they provide for both Aboriginal and mainstream business’s in Canada,” stated Bee-Clean Building Maintenance Vice President of Strategic Development Randy Moore.

Bee-Clean has also come on board at the committed level for a second year to CCAB’s Progressive Aboriginal Relations Program (PAR). The PAR certification program recognizes outstanding Aboriginal relations among leading Canadian companies. Companies such as Bee-Clean integrate Aboriginal relations into their strategic planning and are viewed by Aboriginal businesses and communities as ideal business partners and places to work.

CCAB President and CEO JP Gladu also stated, “Forward thinking companies such as Bee-Clean see the growth and potential in partnering with Aboriginal business. When Aboriginal business grows so does Bee-Clean in a situation where everyone wins.”
