

Jessie Marie Gibney Biography

Jessie Marie is a fourth year student at the University of Alberta completing degrees in Native Studies and Elementary Education. Her passion developed at an early age and at the tender age of six she began her chosen path of performing. At the age of twelve she was introduced to the worlds of musical theatre and Opera and she developed a deep interest in classical music. Jessie has been classically training for nine years and has been studying with Elizabeth Raycroft since 2009. She has had the opportunity to work with many wonderful teachers including Shannon Boyle and Eva Bostrand. She performs at galas and events throughout Alberta. She wishes to continue to sing Opera as well as teach Aboriginal youth in Edmonton and areas. Strong and pure of heart, her caring nature led her to the field of teaching; her love of music led her to the streets of Italy. Recently returning from studying in Italy, Jessie acquired an even more calm understanding for her love of song. One day she plans to sing in Italy.
