

Chris Healy

Chris is an acclaimed Métis leader in drones and emerging technologies. Chris is the chair of the Transport Canada operator sub-committee on drone traffic management and a Canadian National representative to NATO. Chris has led the team at IN-FLIGHT Data since 2014, holds six world records, and has extensive knowledge and experience in advanced technology, specifically long range drone operations for wildfires in Canada.